

EPS Organizational Principles

1. Create a nurturing environment in which each teacher, teacher trainer, minister, and community/sangat member can grow to his or her full potential.
2. Nurture self-guidance and healthy inter-dependence (cooperation, collaboration, and mannerful interactions) of teachers with individuals, organizations and communities in our global family.
3. Create processes that meaningfully involve those who are directly relevant or affected by a decision.
4. Instill leadership and use resources at the most local part of the organization whenever possible.
5. Create no intrinsic advantage and no intrinsic disadvantage for any individual or group.
6. Foster free and transparent flow of information, consciously and gracefully, among all individuals and all parts of the organization.
7. Recognize and honor wisdom, expertise, and all thoughts and actions grounded in higher consciousness and selfless service.
8. Encourage and foster sharing, mutual support and trust in abundance.
9. Acknowledge and utilize the power of collective action and creativity.
10. Promote development and growth of the Kundalini Yoga community, and work to assure the integrity and coherence of the whole.
11. Maintain the highest standards of personal and professional integrity, accountability, and performance.
12. When a conflict arises, find resolution that serves the needs of all parties and accomplish this through deep listening, and loving and honoring communication.
